Ronnie J. Phillips

Résumé

ron@ronniejphillips.com
www.ronniejphillips.com

Education

1973 B.A., University of Oklahoma, Norman
Urban Studies

1980 Ph.D., The University of Texas, Austin
Economics

Current Position

2010-present Professor Emeritus, Economics, Colorado State University, Fort Collins

Awards and Experience

- Oliver Pennock Distinguished Service Award, Colorado State University
- Past President of the Association for Evolutionary Economics
- Past President of the Association for Institutional Thought
- Visiting Research Fellow, American Institute for Economic Research, Great Barrington, MA
- Senior Fellow, Networks Financial Institute, Indianapolis, IN
- Scholar in Residence, Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation in Kansas City, Missouri
- Visiting Scholar, Division of Insurance at the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in Washington, D.C.
- Visiting Scholar, Bank Research Division at the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Department of the Treasury, in Washington, D.C.
- Resident Scholar, Jerome Levy Economics Institute of Bard College in Annandale-on-Hudson, New York
- Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation Grant for Entrepreneurs in the Music Industry
- Department of the Treasury Intergovernmental Personnel Act Award -A Study of Financial Services in the Future
- George Edward Durell Foundation for a Study on Safe and Stable Banking
- Panelist, National Endowment for the Arts (NEA)

JEL Classification—Research Interests

- L26 Entrepreneurship
- N2 Economic History: Financial Markets and Institutions
- Z1 Cultural Economics

Phillips also taught at Texas A&M University in College Station, Texas. He is the author of the widely cited The Chicago Plan and New Deal Banking Reform published by Routledge, Foreword by Hyman P. Minsky.